User Agreement with Tenjin

We ask customers to fill out the billing info if your paid installs count exceeds the FREE threshold per month. Or we will ask you to sign the contract if you want to get a better deal. Our standard pricing options are described here. If you would like to know more details, please send an email to support@tenjin.com.

Closing your Tenjin Account

If you would like to close your Tenjin account, please reach out to support@tenjin.com or accounting@tenjin.com. Please note that closing your account does not end your contractual obligations with Tenjin if it is outside the contract terms.
